Office Memorandum

8/599/2010-IV/PHD

It has been observed that a number of proposals regarding medical reimbursement claim submitted by the Government employees are for the treatment availed in non-recognised/recognised hospitals and the reasons given are always not genuine. The treatment in such cases are many times available in Government Hospitals viz. Goa Medical College, Asilo Hospital and Hospicio Hospital.

Against this background, it is considered necessary to issue fresh instructions as under:—

1. Unless and until the patient is referred to G.M.C./Government Hospitals and unless it is certified by respective Government Hospitals stating that such facilities are not available in that Hospital or in Goa Medical College only in such cases the Medical Reimbursement claim have to be recommended for consideration of the Government.

2. In case of an emergency and treatment is taken in any private recognised/unrecognized hospitals, in such an event Goa Medical College should justify and certify that the genuine emergency situation existed
